Artist Image

The artist image is the photograph of the artist as it appears on the artists profile page. There is a great deal of scope allowed for artist images. They can be images of the artist at work, a more formal photograph or even a self portrait. Images should be included on a CD and the file entitled "ArtistImage.jpg". Images of the artist are cropped to 250 pixels in width at a resolution of 96 dpi.

If you need assistance in creating an artists image, please feel free to contact the webmaster: webmaster@HaverhillArtAssociation.org

Artwork Images and Details

With Member Plus status, you are granted the right to display up to 12 images of your artwork.

All artwork submissions must be accompanied by an Artwork Submission Cover Form and a separate Artwork Submission Details Form for each piece. Both of these forms are available on the Join Us page of the HaverhillArtAssociation.org website.

For each piece of artwork submitted for inclusion on the website, the following information is required:

Title (maximum of 250 characters)

Statement of the artist. A short sentence or two describing the artists thoughts on the work.

Size of the artwork (height, width in inches)

Medium (i.e. oil, watercolor, photography, drawing, pastel, pottery etc.)

Canvas (i.e canvas, canvas board, linen on board, Arches 140 lb cold pressed, glossy/matte stock etc).

Price: (dollar amount, NFS or Not For Sale, Private Collection etc.).

For questions or assistance in collecting images of your artwork, please feel free to contact the webmaster: webmaster@HaverhillArtAssociation.org
